

White Plains
Boy Scout Troop 73
End-of-the-Year Holiday Party

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 2009
White Plains Middle School – Highlands Campus
7:30-9:00 P.M.

Next week, at our regular Tuesday night Troop Meeting, the Scouts and Leaders of Troop 73 will celebrate the end of our 2009 Scouting year, and look forward to a very exciting 2010, by holding our annual holiday party. Scouts are invited to bring some item of food, beverage, or miscellaneous stuff (ice, plates, napkins or cups). Anything you'd like to bring is fine and will likely be eagerly devoured - including the plates and cups! The Patrol Leaders Council has determined that either "festive attire" or official Boy Scout uniforms should be worn.

Among the activities will be our Troop's traditional grab bag. Anyone wishing to participate, and grab from the bag, is asked to bring some wrapped gift, appropriate for a boy of Boy Scout age. Please NO PRANK OR JOKE GIFTS which may not be appropriate for Scouts, or boys, or boys who are Scouts. While everyone should stay thrifty, the word on the street was that some of the gifts last year were, perhaps, not well-chosen. Rule out anything you wouldn't want to receive yourself. We know how generous you all are, so please limit the cost of your gift to only a few dollars.

We hope to see you next week with food in one hand, a grab bag gift in the other, and your third raised high in the Scout Sign. Of course you are welcome to show up without any of these items, just enjoy some fun and food and the fellowship of your Patrol and Troop.
